Fort Lauderdale International Film Festival
Brings Its Next Big Party to Tribeca Film Festival
June 9, 2022

Fort Lauderdale, FL (May 31, 2022) – Hot off its epic Beach Soiree at Cannes Film Festival, where over 600 members of the film industry experienced the flavor of Fort Lauderdale with the sounds of well-known South Beach DJ Irie, Fort Lauderdale International Film Festival (FLIFF) brings its next big party, to the “Big Apple”. The gathering takes place during the Tribeca Film Festival on Thursday, June 9, from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m., at The Venue on Music Row, an extraordinary bi-level entertainment event space at the spectacular Hard Rock Hotel New York in Midtown Manhattan.

Although FLIFF President and CEO, Gregory von Hausch, has attended Tribeca Film Festival for many years to screen and acquire films for the annual event, this marks the first time the festival has hosted a film industry party during Tribeca. “With the pandemic subsiding and the festival now in its 37th year, it feels timely to reintroduce ourselves and the exciting plans we have for the 2022 fest this November,” commented von Hausch.

The evening will provide an opportunity for guests, including Indie filmmakers, motion picture industry leaders, talent, and Press to network and mingle with one another, and enjoy an evening of entertainment.

Sponsored by Seminole Hard Rock Hotel and Casino and co-sponsored by Provocativo, Victor George Vodka, Variety, and The Hollywood Reporter, the festivity includes an open bar, lite bites, desserts, and a dazzling live performance by The Jersey Girls, whose music from the 60’s thru today, will rock the house. The dynamic vocal trio will be accompanied by high-octane, internationally recognized electro-violinist Svet, who was featured on America’s Got Talent.

As the evening unfolds FLIFF President Gregory von Hausch will reveal details regarding the upcoming 37th Annual Film Festival taking place this year from Nov. 4-13, 2022. Festival Chairman, Steven Savor, will announce the party lineup, which will include Opening Night at Seminole Hard Rock Hotel and Casino, the WinterFLIFF Party at Savor’s Villa de Palma, the Chairman’s Cruise aboard Savor’s 125’ yacht, Savoir Faire, and a Closing Night Beach Bash.

The 37th Annual Fort Lauderdale International Film Festival (FLIFF), named one of the top destination film festivals in the nation by Moviemaker Magazine, brings film talent from around the globe and audiences together to celebrate American Independent and International cinema. The festival screens over 150 films showcasing a diverse selection of genres, and champions both rising and renowned artists. FLIFF is a 501(c)3 organization. www.fliff.com Follow on social media @fliffest
